

Correct actions help most on high-action clips

Positive means the correct-action generation is closer to the recorded future than zero/shuffled/reversed-action generations.